...MEMORIES ARE

FOREWORD

It has so often been said that all good things must come to an end; while spending the last of our four years here at E. E. Smith we, the senior class, are beginning to realize the meaning more and more. To the satisfaction of having accomplished much is added a feeling tinted with sorrow because we now have to leave.

Many things have happened during our four year stay that will long be remembered, but most of all, our Senior Year and the events that occured in it. This last year and these events have established an impression that will be something of value to us for the rest of our lives.

This collection of some of those memories is the result of work of a prepared people, the Senior Class of E. E. Smith Senior High School, will linger as we live and will serve to remind us that . . . "MEMORIES ARE MADE OF THIS."

OUR PRINCIPAL

To Mr. E. E. Miller; under your great leadership we, the class of 1959, have prospered. From your care and understanding we have learned to care and to understand; from your guidance we have learned to chose wisely; and from your interest in us we have developed character traits that will stay with us infinitely.

In the beginning we anticipated graduation as a joyous occasion worth waiting for. Now that it is so near, we find it hard to be happy. We will forever be indebted to you.

FROM THE SENIORS

Dear old E. E. Smith, from you we must depart,
But you will always linger deep down in our hearts.
To you we will always be loyal and indebted,
The things you have done will ne'er be regretted.
You stood us up and we will never let you down,
The characteristics you taught us will always be found.

Departure from you Smith is a saddening hour.
For the things we have inherited are like
The destiny in the sweetness of a flower.
You taught us to be grateful and do inspiring things.
And that old Smith High spirit
In our hearts will ever ring.

During these years we learned to the greatest of our abilities
For we had very patient instructors and good facilities.
Dear old Smith we could never be grateful enough,
For the best services and good teachings you have rendered us.
We will always think of you as a block of our foundation.
We will represent you well in any community, town or nation.

THE PRESIDENT SPEAKS

The Student council is a functioning organization for the betterment of the school by promoting better relations between students, teachers, and their communities.

As president of the Student Council, I am proud to say that this organization truly has worked toward that goal.

A truly dedicated Student Council is an asset to any school. During the past year the members of the student body have co-operated whole heartedly in the various activities carried on by the council.

A word of thanks to all persons connected with the council. A special word of thanks to the guidance counselor, Miss C. L. Thompson, who advised us throughout the year.

In closing, I would like to wish that the Student Councils of the future would attain even greater heights, and that the Student Council may continue to be the voice and inspiration of each student.

NEWS PAPER CLUB

The Smithsonian, the official newspaper of E.E. Smith Senior High School, has as its chief purpose to promote better relationships between the schools and to inform the community of the events occuring at our school. This year the newspaper has achieved its purpose. The first printed edition of the newspaper since coming to this school in 1954 was issued this year.

Some of the articles covered in the newspaper were the "Drama Festival," "Parent-Teacher Conferences," "Career Day," "Christmas Musical Presented by Glee Club," "New Teachers," and "New Students." Other articles of importance were printed.

Due to the perseverance and cooperation of the staff members, the Smithsonian has been made a success.

The E.E. Smith "Thespians" have been going strong this year. Two projects have brought laurels to our Alma Mater.

On February 13, we presented, as we do annually, three one-act plays. PINK AND PATCHES, laid its setting "up in them thar hills." It was a delightful comedy, telling the story of a young girl's longing for a pink dress. THE LAMB IN THE WINDOW, our drama, was the story of a minister, who, thinking that he had failed his flock, prepared to resign at the time that his members were going to force him to resign. GOOD-BYE TO THE CLOWN was concerned with a little girl who adopted an imaginary clown as a playmate when her father died. A fantasy, it ended the evening on a light note.

On February 26 and 27, the district Dramatics Festival was held here at E.E. Smith. Participating were schools from all over the Southeastern district. Our entry, DAWN WILL COME, received an A-1 rating. Three members of the cast received awards--William Murphy received a certificate of Honorable Mention; Arthur Harris received one for Best Supporting Actor, and Joseph Kelly was proclaimed Best Actor of the 1959 Festival. With the A-1 rating came an invitation to participate in the State Festival in Raleigh.

Under the capable direction of our faculty advisors, Mrs. N.S. Williams, Mrs. I.C. Fowler and Mrs. C. L. Massey, we have experienced a full and happy year in dramatics.

OUR 1959 SPORTING BULLS

FOOTBALL

The rampaging "Golden Bulls" of E. E. Smith turned in another very impressive season while in the "Pastures" for the '58-59 season with a 5-3-1 overall record and a 5-2-1 record in conference.

The "Bulls" fleet backfield was under the direction of head coach, D. T. Carter and the unyielding forward was tutored by coach D. S. Kelly.

Seniors that contributed whole-heartedly to the Bulls' success were co-capts. Alvin Walker, Q. B.; and Bishop Harris, H. B.. Others were James Quick, T.; Robert Drake, F. B.; Burnis Copeland, H. B.; Lewis Smith, H. B.; Charlie Sheridan, H. B.; William Campbell, E.

Special congratulations go to Elmer McMillan, G.; and James Strother, G., who were elected to play in the Shrine Bowl Game. Elmer "Tank" McMillan was also elected All-State Guard.

BASKETBALL

The Varsity Bulls found it rough going on the hardwood for the 1958-59 season.

The Bulls showed game spirit in each of their outings although in most cases they were outclassed. Coach D. S. Kelly worked very hard in producing his first five but they succeeded in presenting him victories in only four cases.

Seniors of the team were Raymond Wilson, Robert Drake, James Quick, William Campbell, Burnis Copeland, Bishop Harris and Lawrence Oates.

BASEBALL

The Powerful Bulls, State runner-up for 1958, were off to another good start this year. With a record of four victories and two defeats, and a young strong team, the Bulls are making their bid for another try at the State Crown.

CLASS POEM

As the years roll on in the march of time,
We'll cherish our school, so dear and sublime;
Her ideals we'ss foster and cling to with pride,
Her precepts and tenets we'll take as our guide.
Each thought, each act and each victory won
Commingled with dreams, with work and fun
Present in retrospect and cloudless view,
The deeds we deigned and proposed to do.

Now, as we pause at future's door,
We recall with gratitude those who bore
Encumbrances of care--those with concren
About skills and values we should strive to learn.
To our parents and teachers, to all who've befriended,
It's hard to repay for this milestone just ended;
Yet to all thus endeared, our tributes we sing,
We dedicate our future and all it may bring.

CLASS SONG

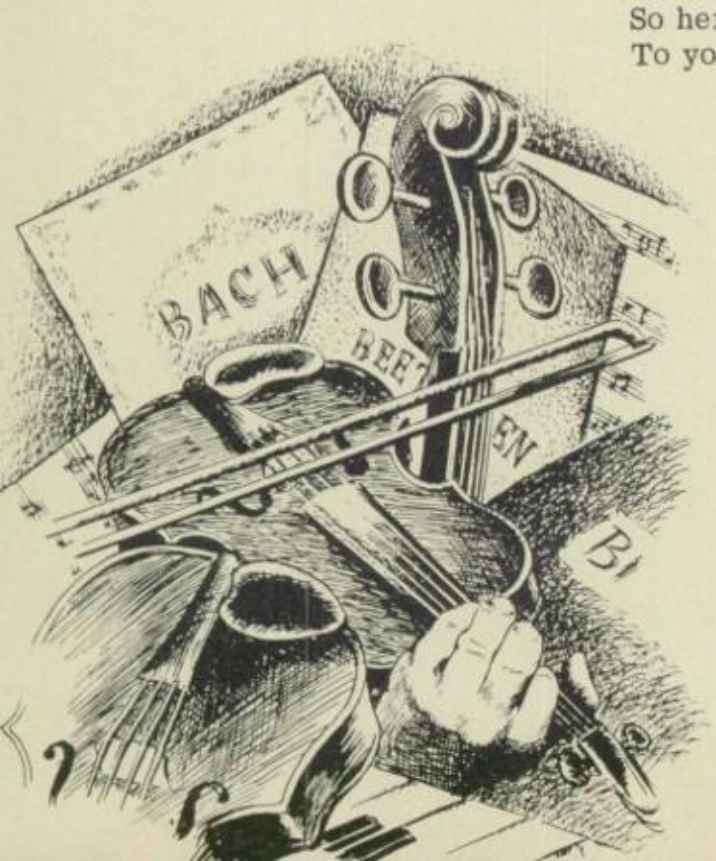
Tune (My Best to You)

Dear Smith High School, our four years with you,
Were so filled with hope and our faith tis true.
We came through the years with our heads held high,
Growing more mature, as this parting day drew nigh.

We know it's true, though we love you so,
Our work here is through and it's time to go.
So farewell to you, we bid you adieu;
We must now depart: you'll always be in our heart.

Our teachers our guides, led our steps this way,
Walking by our side, thus we see this day.
So here's to you, may we ere be true
To your standards--that's our best to you

Lois McEachern



CLASS HISTORY

In September, 1955, like a swarm of bees we lit on E. E. Smith High School. On Orientation Day of the previous May, we had been assigned our respective hives so that from the start, we began a never to be ceased buzz of activity.

We started off by buzzing to the forefront in scholarship. Many of our names appeared on the first six weeks' honor roll and stayed there. At the Honor Society Tea in May of that year, we turned out in large numbers. We were represented in school activities: on the gridiron, on the hardwood, on the diamond and in the band.

With the addition of twelve mighty virtuosos, the band made a good enough rating in the District Band Festival to qualify for participation in the State Festival, something that the band had not done in a good many years.

In the contest for Miss Homecoming, we had an attendant, Edith Matthews, who placed fourth.
In the contest for May Queen, Barbara Williams represented our class as second attendant.

We wound up that year and flew into our second year after a refreshing Summer and we were now ready to begin where we left off. We started by placing, again, large numbers in the glee club, football team, basketball team, baseball team and band. May Lula Ray and Zora McRae were made majorettes and Gladys Brown was placed on the cheering squad and elected captain.

Several students maintained such high averages that they were allowed to be placed on probation of the National Honor Society. They were William Murphy, Annie Lawrence, Betty Lawrence, Herma Robinson, James Brewington, Joseph Kelly, Lynwood Walker, Hermine Jones, and Alvin Walker.

We buzzed through this year, eager to confront the next year, for we felt that we certainly had a lot to look forward to--the Junior-Senior Prom, the trip to Washington, the title "Upperclassman".

We experienced something in our Junior year that we had not counted on. We were fortunate in being one of the first classes to take television courses. A half-hour lesson broadcast from Chapel Hill supplemented our regular classroom instruction. Because of this, our trip to Washington was postponed.

Tapped for National Honor Society this year were Jeannette Melvin, Arthur Harris and Jean Berrien.

Geraldine Isley and Mayrene Burgess were our Homecoming attendants.

Highlight of this year was the Junior-Senior Prom. Our theme was "Aboard a Flying Comet", in keeping with the International Geophysical Year. Girls in bouffant gowns and tight shoes and boys in tight collars gave the seniors a "bang-up" Prom and had the time of their lives.

We left in June and after getting rested up for the hard grind that we knew was ahead of us, we came back for our last year. We did not swarm in as we had done three years ago, but rather, we went dignified and stately, aware that we were to set an example for those whom we would inspire. We seemed to walk with our shoulders squared and our heads a little higher.

Barbara Williams was named "Miss Homecoming" and also "Miss E. E. Smith".

We had outstanding representatives on all athletic squads.

James Brewington stood out in leadership when he was elected president of the Student Council and of the Senior class. William Murphy was elected president of the National Honor Society, Lynwood Walker was elected president of the Student Guidance Committee. Athletic leaders were, Alvin Walker and Bishop Harris, football co-captains; Robert Drake, captain of the basketball team; Bishop Harris, captain of the baseball team.

On April 10, the Juniors gave us a wonderful Prom and truly made it "An Enchanted Evening".

In the national competition for Howard University scholarships, E. E. Smith had five people eligible for scholarships: Jeannette Melvin, Alvin Walker, James Brewington, Joseph Kelly and Jean Berrien.

Our plans for the future are to really be like bees. They get all the nectar that they can out of flowers and use it to make honey. By getting all we can out of our school days, we plan to take it elsewhere and make the most of it.

Barbara Ann Williams

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the senior class of E. E. Smith Senior High School, in memory of our senior year, do hereby establish this to be our last will and testament.

To Mr. Miller, our principal, and to our faculty, whose patience we have taxed these many years, we leave our deepest gratitude.

To Mrs. Fowler, Mrs. Spivey, and Miss Thompson, who have brought us through many trials, who have helped us to become better people, and who have exposed us to knowledge and guidance throughout the years, we leave our most sincere thanks and appreciation.

To the underclassmen, we leave the following: To the Juniors we leave the trials and tribulations; and the joys and sorrows of being a senior. To the Sophmores we leave our tenacity and fortitude in hopes that they too may graduate from E. E. Smith.

As our last wishes we shall add the following personal requests:

James Douglass wills his charm and his playboy spirit to William McAllister.

Alvin Walker wills his ability to get along in school work and with people to Joseph Walker.

James Brewington wills his leadership ability to Thomas McLaurin.

Gladys Brown wills her ability to get along with people to Velma Brown.

Barbara Williams wills her ability to talk no matter what, to Martha Rowe.

Mary Jane McCallum wills her dramatic ability to Rita Newton.

Jeannette Melvin wills her typing ability to Eva McEachern.

William Murphy wills his baton to Thomas Berrien, and his dramatic ability to John Mebane.

Arthur Harris wills his height to Charles Patterson.

Alvin Burney wills his artistic ability to Arlenia Rogers.

Hernine Jones wills her creative ability to Elnita Cogdell.

Zora McRae wills her majorette suit to Betty McKeithan.

Elmer McMillian wills his poundage to Arthur Pindle.

Bishop Harris wills his athletic ability to Marlyn Walker.

Geraldine Isley wills her ability to keep an A average in Latin to Ruth Penny, not that she needs it.

Burnis Copeland wills his pitching arm to Burnis Waddell.

The "Cavaliers" leave their space on local talent shows to the "Echoes."

Lynwood Walker wills his business-like ability to Kenneth Smith.

Katie Brown wills her job to Carolyn Gilbert.

Carolyn MacRae wills her talkativeness to anybody who wants it.

Geraldine and Effie will their ability to be friends to Grace Covington and Catherine Walker.

Calvin Porter wills his drumming ability to Robert Jones.

John Dukes wills his dance steps to Connie Boykins.
